ALPS

Who We Are

ALPS is a small English language school with a friendly, family-like atmosphere located in Seattle, USA.

Whether you're preparing for a degree program at an American university, adjusting to a new culture and city after moving to Seattle, or leveling up your career, ALPS has the English language program to get you to your objective quickly.

Join the thousands of successful students who have met their professional, academic, and personal goals through ALPS's intensive, individualized English programs.

Why ALPS?

8 Students Maximum Per Class

Study in small classes where you will receive personalized attention and feedback from your teachers and master English with more speaking time and more meaningful interactions.

Diversity and Community

Make friends from all over the world at ALPS and exchange cultural experiences with them. ALPS welcomes students from dozens of countries each year. Most classes have students from 3 or more countries!

School Activity Program

Have fun, experience American culture, practice English, and discover wonderful places in Seattle and Washington State with your new friends and teachers on ALPS weekly activities.

College And University Pathways

Transfer directly to a degree or certificate program at one of our partner colleges or universities without a TOEFL or IELTS score after successfully completing advanced ALPS levels.
