ABOUT THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE INSTITUTE

For over 50 years, the English Language Institute (ELI) has been offering rich education experiences to students from around the world. Multi-level programs, free specialized workshops and lectures, and daily social activities give students unlimited opportunities to increase their fluency while experiencing Canadian life to the fullest.

INTERNATIONALLY RECOGNIZED LANGUAGE PROGRAMS

Our English language programs are taught by highly qualified instructors who have many years' experience teaching English to learners from around the world. All have graduate degrees in English language education or practical English language teaching qualifications.

DAILY SOCIAL AND CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

An exciting variety of social and cultural activities during lunch, after class and on the weekends gives students more opportunities to practise their English and make new friends, while enjoying Vancouver's natural setting, culture and attractions.

CULTURAL ASSISTANTS

Young, energetic UBC students work as Cultural Assistants (CAs) for the ELI, and are important members of our staff. Our CAs:

- help students make friends
- teach students about Canadian life and customs
- practise conversational English with students
- participate in classroom activities as Canadian English speakers.

ELI MANAGED HOMESTAY PROGRAM

The ELI-managed Homestay Program is a valuable way for students to experience daily Canadian life.

Students can live with a friendly, English-speaking family in a safe and comfortable home close to campus. While with their homestay family, students are immersed in Canadian life, culture and customs, and can practise English outside of class.
